.....RESPONDENT(S)

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ of Habeas Corpus, directing the respondents to produce the petitioner's husband by name Polisetti Krishna Murthy, S/o. Hanumantha Rao, aged about 72 years, who is kept in illegal custody before this Hon'ble High Court, after declaring that the petitioner husband detention is illegal

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.CHALLA.SRINIVASA REDDY

Counsel for respondent Nos.3 and 4: The Advocate General

The Court made the following ORDER:

(per Hon’ble Sri Devinder Gutpa, the Chief Justice)

As per the affidavit of K.Sivakumar, Sub-Inspector of Police, Jeedimetla police station the alleged detenu is an accused in crime No.158/2004 of Narasaraopet police station. Crime was registered on 3-4-2004 for offences under Sections 420, 323 and 506 IPC read with Section 3 (10(x) of the Prevention of Atrocities on Schedules Castes and Scheduled Tribes Act. Detenu was arrested on 24-6-2004 and was produced before the Court and he is stated to be in judicial custody.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that detenu was arrested on 22-6-2004 and had been in unlawful custody.

We are not inclined to go into the disputed question at this stage since detenu as of today is in lawful custody. In case petitioner or the alleged detenu has any other grievance, he is at liberty to take appropriate proceedings in accordance with law. Writ petition is dismissed.
